PLEASE COMPLETE OTHER SIDE

All students, regardless of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, limited English proficiency, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or housing status, have equal access to all programs including athletics and other extracurricular activities.

Responsible Use Policy:

The Mansfield Public Schools provides computing resources and Internet access to support the District's educational, instructional, administrative and operational activities. The use of these resources is a privilege that is extended to students. The Responsible Use Policy (RUP) explains the District's expectations for using these resources responsibly, ethically, productively, and legally. Violations of the RUP may result in consequences including, but not limited to, modification or revocation of access privileges, school disciplinary action and/or appropriate legal action may be taken by affected parties. The complete Responsible Use Policy is found in the Student Handbook as well as on the Mansfield Public Schools website.

_____ My child and I have read the Responsible Use Policy (RUP). We understand that the use of the computing resources is a privilege and that a violation of the RUP may result in consequences.
